Xmas in Connecticut
When Katie Brown and her husband, William Black, bought their 19 th -century	00. +
Colonial five years long ago, she knew they'd found the perfect place for big	0. long holiday gatherings. "It's so quirky," she says. "I love the airy house rooms and	1.
meandering floor plan." The house had reminded Katie of her grandfather's	2.
cabin on a lake in upper Michigan, where she grew up. "I've always wanted	3.
that same rustic been-there-forever look." So Katie, editor in loader chief of	4.
Yahoo Makers and founder of the Katie Brown Workshop, decorated with	5. rehabbed castoffs and treasures scavenged from flea markets. Once December	6.
rolls around, she gives her eclectic décor a festive boost with bundles of backyard	7.
greens and woodland merry accents. "I'm inspired by natural beauty," she says.	8.
"I'd like to bring the same outdoors in." Throughout the season family traditions	9.
also play a role play. The annual highlight is a trip to the local tree farm.	10.
